

30 Day D.I.Y. Credit Repair Challenge Email Promo

Hey (name),

Are you tired of that low credit score yet?

How has it affected you?

If you're like most people with poor credit, you got into this mess without really understanding the ramifications of your choices. Once you finally understood, the damage was already done.

Your low credit score has likely impacted your life in a number of devastating ways, costing you tons of money:

- You may have been denied a loan to purchase something life-changing like a house or a car.
- You may be unable to obtain credit cards that would allow you to make large purchases and begin to build your credit.
- If you do end up getting approval for a home loan, car loan, or credit card, you face extremely high interest rates and steep fees.
- You may face a much higher cost for any insurance that you need to purchase, including renters', home, or auto insurance.
- You may have to pay hefty deposits for utilities.
- You might be denied a job if employers run credit checks.

You need a change.

Like everyone, you have goals and dreams. You're ready to move forward, to breeze through life, to live the way that you want to live. You don't want to be held back any longer. You don't want to continue throwing your hard-earned money away.
