

PUM - Vendor Spotlight Email - Stacey Lee Designs

Aloha to all our valued customers!

Pop-Up Makeke here in your inbox today with another Vendor Spotlight. Today we are focusing on Stacy Lee, and no doubt you've probably seen (or purchased) some of her gorgeous pieces. Stacey Lee Designs has been a very popular vendor on the site for some time now, so we only felt it was the right thing to spotlight Stacy and share her story with you.

Stacey was born in Honolulu, and despite having childhood hobbies centered on arts and crafts, her first career was in Silicon Valley during the tech boom of the early 2000s. Stacey was always creating on the side, and when the dot.com bubble burst, she took it as a sign to commit to her designs full-time. And out of that change, Stacey Lee Designs was born.

Stacey seeks to create authentic pieces inspired by her world travels, her lush Island home, and other experiences in her life. Ask her about any of the pieces she makes, and you'll be intrigued by their inspirational stories!

A truly unique and common aspect of all pieces by Stacey Lee Designs is Stacey's commitment to hand-selecting all her materials. There's no rhyme or reason to her selections. Instead, she sees what captures her imagination while traveling and turns them into the jaw-dropping pieces we know and love - and wear!

Every purchase from Stacey Lee Designs is individually handcrafted. So, each is unique, elegant, and immediately wearable.
